

Futures Strategist John Sanei makes sense of future trends and merges them so individuals and organisations can forge forward with confidence, elevating their leadership vision to exponential heights.

At the intersection of human science, neuroscience, quantum technology, futurism and business strategy, John has a knack for sharing his knowledge and creating meaningful connections. He ignites platforms, connects with crowds and leaves an empowering perspective that lasts long after the lights have switched off.

John's travelled virtually, locally and internationally. He has received global recognition for his keynote talks and masterclasses as Africa's first Singularity University Faculty Member, a lecturer at Duke Corporate Education and an Associate Partner at the Copenhagen Institute for Futures Studies.

He is the Co-Founder of the School of Modern Wisdom and The Expansive Podcast, one of South Africa's top Business podcasts. As the author of four bestsellers and currently working on his fifth, John has fulfilled his goal of staying on top of future trends by researching and publishing a book every year.

When not speaking, John's training for the next triathlon and convincing friends, family and fans to adopt abandoned dogs.
