Talk

As we evolve away from the Industrial Age into the Quantum age - every touch point of our lives and businesses are up for questioning.

We are no longer in the old world and we are not in the old world either so we find ourselves in this middle ground or other wiser known as the wilderness.

In this talk, John shares the latest research on the neuroscience redesign required to deal with challenges, the shifting organisational psychology needed to redesign organisations to be truly agile and how to build parallel teams needed to deal with the current and new rules of business.

Takeouts:

- Understand our human addiction to certainty
- Unpack the ways to recalibrate the way our neuroscience works
- Develop new rituals and habits

In this talk, John unpacks the shifting organisational psychology needed to redesign organisations to be truly agile to deal with the current and new rules of business.
